

Jurisprudence Exam Policy

This policy outlines the Saskatchewan College of Pharmacy Professionals (SCPP) procedure and requirements for sitting the SCPP Jurisprudence Exam.

1. All candidates who have successfully completed all requirements up to the point of the Jurisprudence Exam may sit the SCPP Jurisprudence Exam at the College office by pre-arranged appointment.
2. All candidates who require reasonable accommodations for disabilities in order to write the Jurisprudence Exam are required to provide a written request no less than six weeks prior to the examination date. All requests for accommodations and any disclosure of disabilities shall remain confidential, per the SCPP Privacy Policies.

Accommodations for Completion of the SCPP Jurisprudence Exam

Requests for accommodations are reviewed on an individual basis and may be reviewed by an external consultant qualified to make assessments of disabilities and accommodations. Evidence of the need for an accommodation must be provided by a qualified professional directly responsible for the exam candidate's care when the candidate submits a written request for the accommodation(s). Accommodations specific to each candidate may be made upon review and approval by the Registrar in accordance with The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018 to the point of "undue hardship" (which will factor in cost to the College, availability of outside sources of funding and consultation, and other health and safety requirements, among others). Accommodations that have not been recommended by a qualified professional will not be provided. For more information regarding the provision of accommodations for the SCPP Jurisprudence Exam, contact the SCPP office.

Accommodations may be made for a "disability" as described in section 2(1), Part 1 of The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018 as:

- (a) Any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement, including:
 - (i) epilepsy;
 - (ii) any degree of paralysis;
 - (iii) amputation;
 - (iv) lack of physical co-ordination;
 - (v) blindness or visual impediment;
 - (vi) deafness or hearing impediment;
 - (vii) muteness or speech impediment; or
 - (viii) physical reliance on a service animal, wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device; or
- (b) any of the following disabilities:
 - (i) an intellectual disability or impairment;
 - (ii) a learning disability, or a dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in the comprehension or use of symbols or spoken language;
 - (iii) a mental disorder

The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018

3. All candidates will be informed of the results of the Jurisprudence Exam immediately following completion of the exam.
4. Should a candidate be unsuccessful at the Jurisprudence Exam, the candidate must wait a minimum of 30 days between each additional attempt. This is to provide sufficient time for the candidate to prepare to sit the exam.
5. Should a candidate be unsuccessful at the Jurisprudence Exam, the candidate is permitted to write the exam a maximum of three times (i.e. the original sitting, a second attempt and a third attempt). A further fourth or fifth attempt will require an appeal from the candidate.
6. Should a candidate be unsuccessful at passing the Jurisprudence Exam on the three occasions contemplated in bullet #5, the candidate may file an appeal with SSCP Council.
7. The candidate will be required to submit a work plan indicating what steps the candidate will undertake to prepare for a fourth attempt at passing the Jurisprudence Exam.
8. Should a candidate fail the Jurisprudence Exam after the fourth attempt OR SSCP Council declines the request for a fourth attempt, the candidate will be required to wait two years before taking the Jurisprudence Exam one final time.
9. A successful Jurisprudence Examination result expires after three years for those who have not obtained a licence to practise in Saskatchewan.

Questions?

info@saskpharm.ca